FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: August 1, 2011

Keesha & Her Two Moms Go Swimming
$12.95 | June 13, 2011

Sicklerville, NJ— When Keesha ventures out with her two moms to meet up with her best friend, Trevor, and his two dads, she introduces young readers-to-be to the of kind summer fun that families like hers enjoy all the time.

Keesha & Her Two Moms Go Swimming is a good-natured story that promotes the normalcy of everyday life in LGBT families. It explores universal messages about the importance of sharing, being nice to others and how everyone can get along despite our differences.

Pre-schoolers will recognize themselves in little Keesha as she aims to be a good girl and share her toys when other kids refuse. This title will encourage early childhood literacy, build self-esteem and help to reinforce the morality already taught in the home.

The text was written to match the social, cognitive and emotional development of children ages 1-4 years old.
